

Objective

The forum will look holistically at the supply chain of healthy foods production and distribution in North Carolina to identify ways to improve access to healthy foods across the state.

Participants

Farmers, aggregators, distributors, retailers, restaurateurs, regulators, policy makers, lenders, community-based organizations and any individuals or groups involved in healthy foods.

Registration

$35 for the full day. Registration will begin on August 20. Visit