

M.A.Ed. IN COMPREHENSIVE EDUCATION (LITERACY TRACK)

The Master of Arts in Comprehensive Education: Literacy program at WCU is designed for teachers who already have an A level elementary education teaching license or middle grades language arts license. Our online only program offers an innovative and challenging curriculum designed to prepare teachers to develop and apply research skills and expand and deepen content area knowledge in order to provide opportunities for curriculum development and exploration of current methodology.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

100% online programming totaling 30 credit hours that can be completed in as little as two years

The program is aligned to the National Board Teaching Standards and the North Carolina Professional Teaching Standards

Availability of grants, scholarships, and forgivable loan programs

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants must hold (or be eligible to hold) a North Carolina Class A teaching license, or a comparable license from another state.

In addition to the Graduate School Admission requirements, applicants must submit:

- A letter of intent describing reasons for pursuing the M.A.Ed. in Literacy Education, professional goals as a participant in the program, and possible research interests.
- Three recommendations from former instructors or employers who can judge the applicant's aptitude for graduate study.
